

EMERALD VIEW ESTATES HOMEOWNERS ASSOCIATION

FINANCIAL PENALTIES RESOLUTION

WHEREAS the Emerald View Estates Homeowners Association Board of Directors is empowered by statutory law [ORS 94.630 (1) (N)], and the Association documents including the Declaration of Covenants, Conditions and Restrictions ("CC&R's") [Article 4, section 32 and Article 9, section 8 (c)] to assess financial and other penalties against individual members in order to remedy non-monetary violations by those members of the CC&R's, Bylaws of the Association, and Rules and Regulations,

BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED that the Emerald View Estates Homeowners Association Board of Directors does hereby adopt the following procedures, fine assessments and actions with regard to non-monetary violations:

1. Upon being notified of a violation, the Board of Directors shall cause a "Courtesy Notice" to be sent to the owner(s) of the subject property. The notice will inform the homeowner of the violation, and state that they have a specific period of time to correct or abate the violation. Said corrective period shall be a reasonable length of time, based on the nature of the violation and the nature of the corrective action needed. Reasonableness of the time period is at the sole discretion of the Board of Directors.
2. If the violation remains past the time allowed in the Courtesy Notice, a "Compliance Notice" will be sent and shall also inform the homeowner that they may request a hearing, held before either the Board of Directors or its representative(s), with respect to the violation. No fine will be assessed prior to that hearing. Said hearing date shall not be less than 14 business days following the mailing of the letter by U.S. Post Office First-Class mail. If the homeowner does not request a hearing, fines will be imposed in accordance with this Resolution.

Fines for reoccurring violations shall be up to $25 per day. If the violation is of a nature as to occur intermittently, such as a nuisance or offensive activity like excessive noise, a fine of up to $250 per occurrence will be assessed against the owner and his or her Lot.

3. If the homeowner neither requests a hearing date nor attends their requested hearing as scheduled, nor corrects the violation within the necessary time period, the fine of up to $25 per day will be assessed beginning on the first day after the corrective period ends or, with respect to an intermittent violation as provided in section 2 above, a fine of up to $250 will be assessed for each additional occurrence thereafter.

4. If the homeowner requests a hearing before the Board of Directors or its appointed representative(s), that hearing will be held at such date established by the Board of Directors or its representative(s). At the hearing, the Board of Directors or its representative(s) will hear the testimony of the homeowner, and take the case under advisement. Owners may also send in a written statement for the Board's consideration. A decision will be rendered either at the hearing, or, if necessary, at a later date not to exceed 10- days after the hearing date. If the Board of Directors or its representative(s) decides against the homeowner, the homeowner will be granted a further period of time, not to exceed 50% of the original notice period, in which to correct or permanently abate the violation. If the violation is not of an intermittent nature as contemplated in section 2 above, and is not corrected within the additional time period, the daily fine of up to $25 will be assessed from the first day after the additional time period, without further notification to the homeowner. If the violation is of an intermittent nature as contemplated in section 2 above and the Board of Directors or its representatives decides against the homeowner at or after the hearing as provided herein, the homeowner will be assessed a fine of up to $250 for each occurrence of the violation thereafter.

5. When the accrued amount of the assessed fine exceeds $500 (or at Board's discretion), the homeowner will be so notified, informed that the fines will continue to accrue, and informed that a lien will be recorded against the homeowner's lot for payment. The lien will include all appropriate legal fees, costs and recording fees, along with any interest that accrues until the fine is collected. Correction of the violation will not waive accrued fines, fees, costs and interest, which must be paid in full, prior to release of the lien.

This resolution was passed by all of the members of the Emerald View Estates Board of Directors on March 22nd, 2021.
